

Enclaves of Wealth and Hinterlands of Discontent:

Foreign Mining Companies in Africa's Development

Edited by Gavin Hilson

Table of Contents

CHAPTER	PAGE
Introduction	iii
CHAPTER 1	1
Mining Sector Policy - Making and the Donor Community in and for Africa : Lessons and Future Options - Bonnie Campbell
CHAPTER 2	38
Strategies for Maximizing Mineral Revenue: The Zambian Experience - John Lungu and Sumbye Kapena
CHAPTER 3	52
Mining Boom and Enclave Economy: Development Impact and Challenges in Mining Areas - Abdulai Darimani
CHAPTER 4	64
Hiding Conflict Over Industry Returns: A Stakeholder Analysis Of The Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (EITI) - Sarah Bracking
CHAPTER 5	86
Re - agrarianizing Rural Ghana: Can Farming - Based Alternative Livelihoods Reduce Illegal Gold Mining Activity? - Gavin Hilson and Mohammed Banchirigah

CHAPTER 6	102
Mining and Impoverishment: Beyond Direct Foreign Investment - Ray Bush
CHAPTER 7	117
Organizing Small - Scale Artisanal Mining for Sustainable Livelihoods of Communities: The Regulator's Perspective - Ibrahim Bawa
CHAPTER 8	129
Transforming Artisanal and Small - Scale Mining for the Sustainable Livelihoods of Communities: Lessons and Options.- Oliver Maponga	