

FEMINISM AND THE STATE IN NIGERIA:

The National Machinery for Women

By Amina Mama

---

CONTENTS

|   | Pages     |
|---|-----------|
| CHAPTER ONE Introduction and Methodology               | 1  |
| 1.1 Introduction.....   | 1         |
| 1.2. Research Objective.....                                  | 3         |
| 1.3 Research Questions.....                                   | 3         |
| 1.4 Methodology.....  | 4         |
| CHAPTER TWO History and Conditions                     | 6  |
| 2.1 National Political Conditions.....                        | 6         |
| 2.2 United Nations Feminism.....                              | 8         |
| 2.3. International Feminism.....                              | 9         |
| 2.4. Nigerian Women's Activism: Past and Present.....         | 11        |
| CHAPTER THREE The National Machinery                   | 15 |
| 3.1 National Policy Context.....                              | 15        |
| 3.2 The History and Structures of the National Machinery..... | 16        |
| 3.2.2. The National Commission for Women.....                 | 18        |
| The main objective of the NCW .....                           | 18        |
| 3.3 Policies and Programmes of the National Machinery.....    | 24        |
| CHAPTER FOUR Conclusions                               | 33 |
| REFERENCES.....   | 27        |
| Appendix 1: List of Official Documents Procured.....          | 43        |
| Appendix 2: List of Persons Interviewed.....                  | 43        |
| Appendix 3: Towards a National Gender policy.....             | 44        |